

Curriculum Vitae

Cecil J. Hunt, II

Office:

The John Marshall Law School
315 South Plymouth Court
Chicago, Illinois 60604
Email: 7hunt@jmls.edu
Office Phone: (312) 360-2665

Academic Degrees

J.D., Boston College Law School, 1980

Editorial Staff Member, Third World Law Journal, 1978-1980
Phillip C. Jessup International Moot Court Team, 1979-1980
Vice President Black Law Students Association, 1979-1980

A.B., Harvard University, in Political Philosophy, 1975

Senior Honors Thesis:
“The Ablest Man: Reconciling the Nature of Political Leadership in Thomas
Hobbes’ Leviathan and Macheivelli’s The Prince”
Thesis Advisor: Michael Walzer
Captain, Harvard Karate Team

Teaching Experience

Associate Professor (Tenured 2005) The John Marshall Law School, Chicago, IL

Courses: Property, Secured Transactions, and International Human Rights

Associate Professor (2004-present) The John Marshall Law School, Chicago, IL.

Courses: Property; Commercial Transactions – Article 9;

Associate Professor (1998-2004) and Visiting Associate Professor (1997-1998) Suffolk
University Law School, Boston, MA

Courses: Property, Banking Law, Selected Problems in Community Banking
(Lending Discrimination), and Race and the Law

Assistant Professor, University of Puget Sound Law School (now Seattle University Law School), Tacoma, WA, 1988-1991

Courses: Real Estate Transactions, Property, and Jurisprudence.

Publications

Social Figurations of Violence Outside the Shadow of the State: A Law And Social Anthropology Analysis of Non-State-Centered Social Regulatory Regimes of Private Violence in Subcultures of Honor and Respect, forthcoming, The Max Plank Institute for Social Anthropology, Leipzig, Germany 2008

A Poverty of Respect: Human Rights, Honor, Dignity and Respect in the Israeli – Palestinian Conflict, forthcoming in the Albany Law Review 2008

No Right to Respect: Dred Scott and the Southern Honor Culture, 42 New England Law Review 79 (2007)

The Color of Perspective: Affirmative Action and the Constitutional Rhetoric of White Innocence, 11 Michigan Journal of Race & Law 477 (2006)

Calling in the Dogs: Suspicionless Sniff Searches and Reasonable Expectations of Privacy, (forthcoming) 56 Case Western Reserve University Law Review 285 (2005)

In the Racial Crosshairs: Reconsidering Racially Targeted Predatory Lending Under a New Theory of Economic Hate Crime, 35 University of Toledo Law Review 211 (2004).

Guests in Another's House: An Analysis of Racially Disparate Bar Performance, 23 Florida State University Law Review 721 (1996).

The Price of Trust: An Examination of Fiduciary Duty and the Lender – Borrower Relationship,” 29 Wake Forest Law Review 719 (1994).

Professional Legal Experience

General Counsel, Bruti Consulting Group, Boston, MA, 1987-1988

Advised consultants engaged in venture capital financing and counseling high-tech and small start-up companies.

Senior Associate, Harrison and Maguire, P.C., Boston, MA, 1985-1987

Attorney in Real Estate and Banking Department for a firm who was the principal legal counsel to the Boston Five Cents Savings Bank. Represented the Bank in a range of commercial real estate lending, and development matters.

Senior Associate, Widett, Slater and Goldman, P.C., Boston, MA, 1983-1985

Attorney in Real Estate Department. Represented both corporate and individual borrowers in a wide range of sophisticated commercial and residential real estate development matters.

Associate, Goldstein and Manello, P.C., Boston, MA, 1980-1983.

Attorney in Real Estate and Corporate Department. Represented both corporate and individual clients on a wide range of sophisticated commercial and residential real estate development and general corporate matters.

Summer Associate, Akien, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, Dallas, Texas, Summer 1979

Summer Associate in litigation department of large national law firm, in their Dallas, Texas home office. Researched and wrote legal memoranda, motions, and trial preparation documents for a range of corporate cases in the real estate, securities and banking areas. Selected to participate in a pro bono death penalty case. In connection with that case, I interviewed witnesses, attended court hearings, drafted motions, and researched and drafted legal memoranda.

Honors and Awards

Professor of the Year Award; presented by the Student Bar Association, The John Marshall Law School, Fall 2005.

Professor of the Year Award; presented by the Student Bar Association, The John Marshall Law School, Fall 2004.

Professor of the Year Award, co-recipient of the Cornelius J. Moynihan Award for Teaching Excellence, given by the Suffolk Law School Student Bar Association and the Graduating Class of 2002.

Yvette C. Mendez Outstanding Community Service Award, given by the Suffolk University Law School (BLSA) Black Law Students Association and the Graduating Class of 2002.

Honorary Alumnus Award, Black Law Students Association Proclamation of Professor Cecil J. Hunt, II, As Honorary Alumnus For the Black Alumni Chapter of Suffolk University Law School. Presented at the Suffolk University Law School Annual Black Alumni Jazz Reception. (This was the first such Award ever given to a Suffolk faculty member by any student organization.)

Faculty Appreciation Award, presented by the Suffolk BLSA to a faculty member for significant contribution to the community of Black students at Suffolk (1998, 1999, 2000).

Faculty Appreciation Award, presented by the Suffolk BLSA for my involvement in initiating, planning, coordinating and emceeding a highly successful Mock Interview Program, which involved 8 distinguished practicing lawyers of color giving each of 24 students a mock 15-minute employment interview and then 15 minutes of critiques and suggestions (1999-2000).

Professor of the Year Award, presented by the Touro Law School Student Bar Association and the Graduating Class of 1996.

Professor of the Year Award, presented by the Touro Law School Student Bar Association and the Graduating Class of 1994.

Honorary Membership Award, given by the Touro Law School Chapter of the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity International, in Recognition of Outstanding Faculty Contributions to the Chapter, 1994.