Please take this completed form to Financial Aid
(Processing may take up to 5 business days to complete)

Policy Reminder:

- Complete Withdrawal from the Law School - Withdrawal is defined as completely withdrawing enrollment from all classes. Complete withdrawal before the beginning of the term start date will result in no financial responsibility. Complete withdrawal from all courses after the term start date will result in tuition charges according to the refund schedule listed on the following web link: http://www.jmls.edu/registrar/refund-policy.php.
- When a student drops courses (not a complete withdrawal) after the final drop date, the student will be charged in full for the course.
- When a student completely withdraws from the School, charges are based on the effective withdrawal date determined by the Business Office. Students receiving financial aid are required to first contact the Office of Financial Aid to discuss the impact of a withdrawal on academic progress and financial aid eligibility.
- To withdraw or transfer from the law school, a student must complete the Withdrawal form; bring their completed form to the Office of Financial Aid for approval, and then submit the signed form to the Registrar’s Office. All students must complete and submit the form; there are no exceptions to this withdrawal procedure. A student's effective date of withdrawal is the last date of academic attendance.
- Ceasing to attend, notifying the professor, or nonpayment of tuition, does not constitute an authorized withdrawal from class and will result in academic as well as financial penalties.
- Schedule Change – A Student may add course credits to his/her schedule on eCommons through the first week of the fall and spring term and drop credits to their schedule up through the second week of the fall and spring term. Students may add and drop courses through the first week of the summer term. [Please refer to the academic calendar for the specific add and drop deadlines] After the add/drop period, a student must visit the Academic Service’s Office or the Centers for Advanced Studies to change his/her schedule. No changes in schedule after add/drop date will result in refunds.
- Schedule changes made before the official term start date or course start date have no financial impact.
